

State of Louisiana }
Parish of Canechitta } p<sup>o</sup>

On this nineteenth day of April 1838 personally Came and appeared before me George W. Copley a Justice of the Peace in and for the Parish and State of Louisiana James Huey Senior aged ninety six years and residing at the residence of the said Huey about twenty miles from the Court house in and for said Parish and State who from bodily infirmity is unable to attend Court and after being duly sworn to the make a state to the following declaration in order to obtain the benefit of the act of Congress passed January 1830 that he entered the service of the United States under the following named officers and served as herein stated as a militia man in the State of South Carolina that he entered the service of the United States as a militia man on or about the first day of August 1777 under a Captain Fort whose given name this deponent does not now recollect and under a Colonel John Munn and marched near the mouth of the River Savannah in honor of the British so near that they heard the British drums with ease at the time this deponent remained under the above officers for the space of two months and during this deponent at this time he entered the Service and in the County of Chester State of South Carolina that they marched through a marshy country the distance of one hundred miles and being that while they were stationed at this point called the 50 quarters the British left their encampment and it was said the British made an attempt to take the Town of Savannah as the deponent has been informed and believes they failed in the attempt - The next summer that this deponent was in was in the winter of 1780 and 1781 at the time of the advancement of General Nathaniel Greene to the South and at the time he was at the Cheraw Hills the division of Gen Greene's army to enter under General Morgan with about four hundred Continentals under the command of Colonel Rowan and Colonel Washington's dragoons and which resulted in the glorious battle of the Battle of the Cowpens this deponent mustered as a militia man under the command of Captain James Gore to go to the relief of General Morgan but before the Company of Captain Gore of which this deponent formed a part the battle of the Cowpens was fought and this deponent remained in the service for the space of two months and was then again discharged and returned home to his family in Chester County State of South Carolina. this deponent does not recollect the names of the Colonel and this General at the time he was under Captain Gore as above stated

The next service that this deponent was in was at the <sup>time of the</sup> battle of the "Entaw Springs" on or about the 9th day of September of the same year this deponent was ordered as a sufficien man for the term of two months and mounted under Lieutenant Thomas Humphrey who acted as Captain at that time and they were on their way from Chyter to the Entaw Springs they put themselves under the Command of General Francis Marion who at that time and in that battle had the Command of the Saville Carolina Militia and after they had crossed the Congaree River and the way down Saville times called Broad River and layed down towards the Sea Coast Saville River they met several of the militia men who was in the battle this deponent returned home to Charter the distance of about forty miles -

The next service that this deponent rendered was as well as this deponent in all the some time in the Spring of 1782 they were stationed at Orangeburgh under Gen.
Lacy and Gen. Sumpter this deponent was Lieutenant <sup>Sergeant</sup> and acted in that Capacity with Captain Amos Davis and Colonel Joseph Brown for the time they were stationed and remained at that place to wit for two months and rising during their stay at Orangeburgh the British evacuated the City of Charleston and this deponent returned home and peace was soon declared

Master in this author of the in making the state. It was the unwittingly clo- tion, by first and ultimately ion. Such a le consonant able man, as led and illib- hen a public slander and reads him. ed upon as a excites die- t viewed, as e great polit-

"A press posture, an- that upon- tance with- nishes the- ndment for the other" gence, and pleasing amenity of manners, of the gentleman at the head of this in- stitution, recommend him to the attention of the public as a preceptor and proper guide of youth. ...ly, in our observation seen an ... that com- bines within itself so many advantages as does the Minden ... in Clair- borne Parish.

"In the midst of life we are dying"

DIED

In this Parish, on the 12th ... Mr. JAMES HERR, aged 105 years. The deceased was a man of exemplary character, and highly respect- ed by all who knew him. He joined the Baptist Church when he was 65 years of age, and lived up to the period of his death a member of that denomination. He left a numerous family to deplore his loss, & his own, together with his grand and great grand children, amount to ap- proximately 150. He had selected, two years pre- vious to his decease, the spot in which he was in- terred—between his daughter and son-in-law.— Long will his memory be cherished in the hearts of his surviving friends, while his spirit, bright and beautiful, will wing its course to that celestial sphere, where the joys and bliss of heaven are re- membered as an everlasting reward to sustain the sick remnant of a weak mortal. "May thy soul and be with him."

NOTICE
LOVE OF MIND
... by ...

cluded from
The sales (unless the no longer; a townships so the expiration Given and ington,
Anno D
By the Pa
JAM.
C

NOTICE TO

Every per- tion to any of proclama- on the satisfac- and make pe- after scri- may be able to lay in the the common- claims not du- to date afores- ed.

Cowm
CREOL
DUCK
FOR CO
old, br one of the