Charter members in attendance included Dr. James DeLee, Dr. James Morock, Alvin Pitts, and John Sleet.

History

In 1982, an effort was made to form a chapter of the Sons of the American Revolution in Alexandria. Philip M. Sleet Sr, St. John Chilton, James DeLee, and ladies of the Loyalty Chapter, DAR, worked to find new and existing members for this new chapter.

On October 29, 1982 the Organization Meeting of the Alexandria Chapter was held in the same room that 75 years earlier the Loyalty Chapter, DAR was formed. At this meeting State President Edward Overton Caillateau signed the new chapters' charter. roty Seven men were charter members of the Alexandria Chapter and after the signing of the charter, the first election for officers was held. Phillip Sleet Sr was unanimously elected President, Colonel Edgar Hendership, 1st Vice President, Dr. James DeLee, 2nd Vice President, Dr. St. John. P. Chilton, Genealogist, and Alvin L. Pitts, Secretary-Treasurer.

Below is a list of Compatriots who have served as Chapter President, along with year installed in office.

Thomas Ebarb	2011
Tony L. "Bo" Vets, II	2011
Dr. James A. Morock	2012

*During the Eisenwinter administration, it was decided that the name should be changed to honor Enemund Meuillion, whose grave is located across the river in Rapides Cemetery, Pineville.

 Thomas Ebarb was elected and served as president for one month before being transferred to Kentucky. Vice President Bo Vets was served out the remaining term.

With dwindling membership, the chapter suffered from inactivity. In July 2007, Dr. James A. Morock and Tony L. Vets contacted State President John Johnson and Secretary Bill Allerton for guidance in re-establishing the chapter. Morock and Vets were named President and Secretary respectively and former members were contacted. On September 27, 2007, the Enemund Meuillion Chapter held its first meeting in several years.
